The Adams County Home Auxiliary, meeting Thursday afternoon at the home, adopted a resolution stating: "The Adams County Home Auxiliary goes on record as approving the recommendation of the (January) grand jury concerning the disposal of the land adjoining the home (for a school) and the construction of a new county home in the near future."

Some members cited auditors' reports to show that operation of the county home farm "is losing money" because where farm labor at one time was provided by many of the men who were guests of the home now labor must be hired, because few of the guests are either fit or trained for the work.

Some held that a new county home could be built and the present home sold.

Need Another Sofa

Mrs. Earl A. Dilly, chairman of the needs of the home committee, reported receiving one sofa but that another is still needed.

Mrs. J. Albert Blackburn, membership chairman, reported 39 organizations have paid dues in the Auxiliary.

Mrs. F. K. Schwartz, reading committee chairman, said students from the Phi Delta Theta fraternity are reading to guests at the home one day a week during February and March.

Mrs. Raymond Powell, sewing committee chairman, said sewing (Continued On Page 4)

HONOR 24 MECO EMPLOYEES FOR NO ACCIDENTS

For having completed 41 months without a lost-time accident the 24 employees of Metropolitan Edison Company in the Gettysburg District today were commended by Frederick Cox, MECO's Western Division manager, during presentation of an "Accident Prevention Honor Certificate."

The certificate was won by the company's employees on the basis of their "outstanding safety performance during 1956." During the year the 24 employees drove company vehicles a total of 75,000 miles and maintained a vast electrical network serving more than 6,677 homes, farms, businesses and factories in an area 292 miles square, regardless of the weather or other adverse conditions.

In presenting the honor certificate to William A. Lentz, district manager, Cox complimented each individual for "working safely and for the close cooperation given supervisors and safety officials in carrying out the company's vigorous, coordinated accident-prevention program."

He pointed to the record of working more than three years without a lost-time accident as a major achievement which benefits the community as well as the individual, especially in preventing the misery and expense that follows injuries.

Lentz also paid tribute to the outstanding safety performance and expressed confidence that the record of achievement will be repeated in 1957.

Three Treated For Accident Injuries

Eugene Collins, 18, Littlestown, an employee of the Windsor Shoe Co., was treated at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of his left arm received when he slipped and fell on ice at the plant.

BARLOW PHONE FIRM CLOSES

The Barlow Rural Telephone Co. went out of existence Thursday, after many years of service to its community.

And at the same time John E. Caldwell, manager for the local United Telephone Co. announced the impending doom of the party line telephone in the area covered Thursday the four lines which served 55 subscribers of the Barlow company for many years were removed from the boards at the telephone exchange. These subscribers have individual numbers.

President Taft:

Republican And Democrat Senators Present Silver Service And Loving Cup To Retiring Vice President Of The United States.

By Leighton C. Taylor

A few minutes before President-elect William Howard Taft took the oath of office in 1909 the U.S. Senate chamber there occurred a touching, gracious, and unprecedented act: A handsome Silver Service was presented by the Republican members of the senate to Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks upon his retirement, and a loving cup by the Democratic members. It was one of the most remarkable tributes ever paid a retiring Vice President. Senator Porter J. McCumber, of North Dakota, spoke for the Republicans, and Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, for the Democrats. Senator Daniel said facetiously that if the Vice President should ever tire of his "monotonous service" in the Republican Party the Democrats would be glad to welcome him. It was said of Fairbanks, regardless of Party, that

MSGR. KELLER IS DINNER SPEAKER FOR FIRE CHIEFS

"Our problems internationally today are the same as those listed by Lincoln at Gettysburg, to keep government of the people, by the people, for the people from perishing from the earth," the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Harold E. Keller, pastor of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, York, told 150 gathered Thursday evening at the Kingsdale Fire Hall for the annual ladies' night banquet of the Adams County Association of Fire Chiefs.

"And as our nation overcame the problems in 1863, so shall we overcome in due time, God willing, what faces us today — a theory of government by the favored few denying God and the rights of man, which threatens the entire world and against which America stands as the principal bulwark."

"You are used to sacrifice and service. If those were not your keywords you would not be firemen, for no organization entails so much sacrifice or gives so much service. You stand ready to not only serve your community, but to do so even at the risk of your own life and limb. Your own comfort and rest is forgotten to serve your community."

Judge Is Toastmaster

"Today you are asked to serve and to sacrifice for a larger community. You cannot be provincial any longer. Through our government and our representatives we are aiding the world."

Msgr. Keller, former pastor of Conewago Chapel, was one of the founders of the Conewago Fire Co., and is currently a member of a York fire company.

Judge W. C. Sheely served as master of ceremonies for the program. Introducing Eugene A. Murren, McSherrystown fire chief, president of the Adams County Firemen's Association; John Mort, Kingsdale, vice president; Donald Szeinger, Conewago, corresponding secretary; Lawrence

Personable Young Teacher Is Unmasked As Impostor, Bogus Doctor, Professor

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—A personable young schoolteacher who quickly won the affections of a Down East island community was identified by state police yesterday as a fantastic impostor who once posed as a Canadian surgeon in Korea.

Ferdinand Waldo DeMara, 35, a native of Lawrence, Mass., was held on a warrant charging cheating by false pretenses.

The charge stemmed from his role as Martin Daniel Godgart, an instructor of "superior qualifications" who taught North Haven youngsters English, Latin and French, instituted recreation programs, organized a Sea Scout unit and won praise from his colleagues, superiors and the island population.

A Martin Godgart teaches in New York and attended Wagner College there. State police said DeMara had Wagner listed on the Maine teaching certificate they charged he obtained fraudulently. State Police Detective Millard Nickerson said DeMara gave a "full statement" admitting he

New Plane Has 460 Mile Speed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has unveiled a gigantic new cargo plane — the Douglas C132 — which will have a speed of more than 460 miles an hour and be capable of carrying a 200,000-pound payload.

This maximum load is double the lift of the C99, a transport version of the B3c and the largest American cargo carrier in existence.

The newest swept-wing C132 will have a moderate range when fully loaded. With a load of 100,000 pounds the big plane will have a range of 3,500 miles. It can operate from runways of conventional length.

It will be powered by four jet turbine — propeller engines which the Air Force says are of new design. It declined to give details but said that each engine produces the equivalent of about 15,000 horsepower.

REV. S. M. BURGIO IS DIRECTOR FOR CANONIZATION

Rev. Fr. Salvatore M. Burgio, C.M., Emmitsburg, well-known in this area as the vice postulator for the Cause of Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton, foundress of the Sisters of Charity in America, has been named national director for the Cause of Canonization of Pope Pius IX, the Pope who proclaimed the dogma of the immaculate conception in 1854.

The 19th-century Pope's Cause was begun with the "informative process" by the vicariate of the State of Vatican City, where he died. The apostolic process, the second step, began in July, 1956. It entailed the investigation of Pius IX's reputation for sanctity and of the required miracles. National headquarters for the Cause will be in Emmitsburg.

The selection of the Vincentian priest to further the Cause of the Pope in America is the outcome of many years of devotion to the study of liturgical and canonization procedures. Long before he became associated intimately with the actual Causes of Canonization Rev. Fr. Burgio had participated as an assistant to the papal master of ceremonies in more than (Continued On Page 2)

The first quarterly meeting of the members of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Plaza Restaurant. LeRoy E. Smith, president of the Chamber, urgently requests that all members be present.

Expected Unmasking

He said he "half and half" expected to be unmasked.

Only a few of the island's 415 residents claimed any suspicion of DeMara, known as "one of the best superintendents the Baptist Sunday school ever had."

Those who did, including Mrs. George Merriam, wife of the island's Baptist minister, said they were alerted because "Godgart talked a lot" — unlike traditionally tight-lipped Yankees.

It was this trait that led one islander to recall a magazine story on DeMara and asked state police to check on "Godgart."

Up To 9 Inches Of Snow In Mountains

State highway department crews fought an all-night and into this morning battle when snow placed a blanket ranging from three to nine inches in depth over the county.

The storm had piled up three inches of snow in the western and northern end of the county by 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon while it was melting in most of the county. The highway crews began plowing at that time.

ten canonizations of various saints in Rome and many beatifications. In this manner he was able to study at first hand the elaborate and detailed ceremonies.

Studied Procedures

The Emmitsburg priest studied canonization procedures under the late Jesuit authority, Rev. Fr. John Wynne, S.J., and received the counsel of Carlo Cardinal Salotti, prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Rites in Rome. Rev. Fr. Burgio has been consulted from time to time in connection with his experience with the formalities of canonizations in the Catholic church and for his knowledge of liturgical procedures.

The Catholic church in America is indebted to Plus IX for naming the first American cardinal, John McCloskey, who was educated at Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg. Plus IX established the North American College in Rome and created no less than 50 dioceses in the United States.

The pontificate of Plus IX was the longest in the history of the church, from 1846-1878. The Pope, who grew up in the political unrest of the Napoleonic era, was buried in the Chapel of San Lorenzo. His body was exhumed last fall. The vestments had disintegrated and his body was re clothed with the vestments of Pope Plus XII.

Heads Nearby Cause

Rev. Fr. Burgio, who has been vice postulator of Mother Seton's Cause since 1939, has his headquarters in the Knights of Columbus building, Emmitsburg. An honorary member of the Academy of Sacred Liturgy in Rome, he served as confessor to His Eminence, the late Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, at the election of the present Pope in February, 1939. He celebrated his silver jubilee as a priest in May 1952.

He was seriously ill throughout most of his seminary days and was ordained by special papal dispensation in 1927.

performance; picks Pontiac!

Sacramento, California, January 4 — Late in December a select corps of state highway patrolmen reported for duty on a deserted stretch of super-highway. For three days they raced gleaming 1957 cars through hot-rod sprints, wide-open speed runs and tire-peeling stops—always under the recording eyes of radar beams. Purpose: to determine which of six top-performance cars best measured up to the rugged, all-out demands of patrol work. Today, state officials announced that on the basis of impartial test results, California's Highway Patrol has just purchased 300 new Pontiac road patrol cars to help maintain safe control of its huge highway network.

President Taft:

to every school boy, heroically and patriotically spoken, were, "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

The Chaplain's forceful personality, coupled with his deep interest in the anti-slavery movement, popular education, and the workman, did much to raise the tone of American life. He was a prolific writer and author. Dozens of volumes on a wide variety of worthwhile subjects came from his pen, while at the same time he was a contributor to The Atlantic Monthly and similar periodicals. It was in the Atlantic that his famous short story, "The Man Without A Country," first appeared. A large bearded man, always in clerical garb, he was a striking figure at the Capitol and commanded universal respect. He was 87 years of age when he officiated at the Taft Inaugural, and three months later he was dead in his Boston home.

Remain Indoors

Getting back to the inaugural ceremonies, the swearing in of the newly elected and re-elected Senators, ordinarily, would have ended the indoor program; but to have gone out-of-doors for the induction of the President, in view of the continuing atrocious weather, would have been impractical and foolhardy. Therefore, the ceremonies continued and were concluded in the Senate Chamber.

The honorable and venerable Chief Justice of the United States, Melville Weston Fuller, administered the prescribed constitutional oath to the President-elect.

Chief Justice Fuller, a Democrat, was appointed Chief Justice by President Grover Cleveland in 1888. He was a native of Maine, 77 years of age at the time, and died shortly thereafter. The Chief Justice still wore the long flowing hair of the early days of the Republic — the last public man in Washington to do so, not as a pose, but because he was of the old school, and liked and cherished the custom. With his flowing white locks falling over his shoulders, and a handsome mustache to match, he added a kind of glamor and picturesqueness to an otherwise somber and drab group of nine old men — a picture of that high tribunal never to be seen again. Our offices being near the old court room in the Capitol he writer often visited the Court when in session, not so much to hear the arguments as to watch and admire the old Chief Justice presiding in all his glory.

After taking the oath President Taft delivered his inaugural address. Here it should be mentioned that President Roosevelt had said on one or two occasions, once in a Cabinet meeting, that he did not intend to ride in the inaugural parade and back to the White House with his successor; that it was a precedent he did not like, and one that he was going to break; and, true to his word, he did break it.

No sooner had President Taft finished speaking than Mr. Roosevelt, from his seat in the well of the Senate Chamber, rushed up to Taft, grasped his hand, and said something that, sounded like, and it was so reported in the newspapers, "Bully speech, Old Man!" and hurried out of the Chamber to the railroad station, two blocks from the Capitol, accompanied by members of his Cabinet who were to see him off. He had previously arranged to leave the City by train immediately after the ceremonies at the Capitol.

Mrs. Taft says her husband told her afterwards that what Roosevelt really said was: "God bless you, Old Man, it will be a great state document."

Cheered By Crowd

Mrs. Roosevelt with her family and friends had gone direct to the station from the White House to await her husband. The storm having played itself out by this time, with a peep of the sun through the clouds, literally hundreds and hundreds of people, among them your correspondent, followed Roosevelt to the railroad station. Catching sight of him the immense crowd shouted, "What's the matter with Teddy? He's all right, He's all right!" A band, waiting to take its place in the inaugural parade, struck up, "Auld Lang Syne."

Roosevelt, with Mrs. Roosevelt, waved to the crowd, entered his train, and went back to his home in Oyster Bay and to private life. It is said of Washington that he founded our nation; that Lincoln preserved it, and that Roosevelt revitalized it. It isn't too much to say that T. R. was the most dynamic, resourceful, versatile, and unpredictable of all our Presidents. He was born extrovert. The late Mark Sullivan wrote of him that whatever the event he was bound to be the chief figure present, at a wedding the bride, at a funeral the corpse, except that in the latter role he couldn't have resisted rising and preaching the funeral sermon.

Leslie M. Shaw, Teddy's Secretary of the Treasury, said that it wasn't the precedent of riding in the parade and back to the White House with his successor that he wanted to break — it was riding on the left that he couldn't swallow.

In the White House Roosevelt was so mentally alert, so full of ideas for the general welfare, and so impulsive and impatient that he literally deluged the Congress with messages. Around the Capitol it was jokingly said that a secretary from the White House on his way to the Capitol with a Roosevelt message often would pass another Roosevelt message carrier on Pennsylvania Avenue returning from the Capitol to the White House. When a brilliant idea struck President Roosevelt he embodied it in a message and hustled it off to the Congress without regard to its constitutionality. Let Congress and the Supreme Court worry about that!

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Dr. R. W. Gifford Cites Religion
As Life's Basis: Faith — in God and in the physician who is God's servant — plays a larger part in an individual's physical well-being and in his recovery from physical ills, Dr. R. W. Gifford, a member of the surgical staff at the Warner hospital, told a large congregation at the Gettysburg Presbyterian church Sunday evening in the first of a series of special services at which lay members of the congregation are the speakers. Doctor Gifford's subject was "Christ and Your Physical and Mental Well-Being." Next Sunday Professor Charles R. Wolfe of the Gettysburg college faculty will speak on "Christ and Teaching."

Heavy Artillery Fire Roars On Bataan Peninsula: Washington,
Feb. 16 (AP) — Heavy enemy artillery fire and intermittent infantry fighting was reported in progress

Guise Enrolls In FBI Police
School: Chief of Police Glenn Guise this morning enrolled in the FBI course at Harrisburg for the special training for police officials in the national defense program.
The school continues all week and concludes Saturday. It is an advanced course training schedule following a special course given at Philadelphia some time ago. Chief Guise attended the initial course.
Accompanying Chief Guise and also enrolling was V. B. Corie, manager of the Gettysburg Water Company whose employees have been made special police during the emergency.

Kenneth Hull Gets "Ducking"
On Sunday: Kenneth P. Hull, Chambersburg street, took an unexpected swim Sunday afternoon while ice skating on Camp Ritchie Lake in Maryland. Hull was skating alone at the time and was able to "rescue himself by swimming and breaking ice for a short distance until he reached a nearby pier.

Mrs. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. D. E.
Hess, all of Gettysburg, were in the same party and witnessed the "ducking." After swimming to safety, Hull discovered the water was about three feet deep where he broke through, members of the party reported.

INTIMATE BOOK SHOPS

Every lover of books likes to hide himself in one of the many rare and intimate shops where all sorts of books have been herded together awaiting the browser.
How many have been the times when I have dropped into one of these places expecting to stay but a few minutes — and extended the call to hours!

Famous was The Old Corner Book Shop in Boston when it was located off an alley a short block from the Parker House Hotel.
There is a brief street a little back from where this famous shop was located, right off a French restaurant. Bill Nye called it a "short, thick-set Street!" To this shop, long ago, came Oliver Wendell Holmes and a host of book lovers including Whittier, Emerson, Longfellow, Lowell, and later, Christopher Morley.

It was in Boston that the first second-hand book shop in the United States was founded in 1825 by Thomas Burnham. Here in Boston there is the Goodspeed's shop that now is famous. Most of the oldtime shops, however, have gone "the way of all flesh."

In New York City to this day are to be found second-hand book shops that are thick around Fourteenth Street — half a dozen or so in a block, and many a beloved item have I gathered from these interesting spots. There are still scores of attractive shops in New York selling second-hand book
There was one in Chicago, many years ago, run by Frank Morris, where George Ade, James Whitcomb Riley, Eugene Field, William Allen White, and B. L. T. would gather. I first became exposed to the rare book disease in this shop, but was later doctored by this genial and lovable second-hand host to lovers of literature.
All glory to the good second-hand and rare book shops! Would that they would increase in number!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "American History."

Just Folks

IGNORANCE

They're a questioning lot, from seven to three.
But the things they ask are too much for me.
Were I the wisest of all the wise,
Had I learned the lessons of long ago,
This wouldn't be oftener of my replies:
"I'm sorry, my dears, but I don't know."

They think I've studied the books
they read
And must have gathered the facts they need.
When they are busy with homework tasks
That I can read they are well aware,
Then one of them always a question asks
And my response is a vacant stare.

I think it something of deep concern Supplied with the chance and so little learn,
That I in the world should live so long
So many chances to learn to miss,
And have my answers so often wrong;
But that's how it goes in a world like this.

"UNLESS"

No prize is worth the having
... unless it is deserved ... no dream is worth the dreaming
... unless it is preserved ...
no smile is worth the smiling
... unless it's from the heart for only soul-deep smiles can make ... the woes of life depart ... no job is worth the doing unless it is well done ... great satisfaction is derived ...
when flawless webs are spun ... no word is worth the speaking ... unless its meaning's true
... if this be so, speak loud and long and you'll gain faith anew ... no fight is worth the fighting ... except when you are right ... then go with prayer upon your lips ... and try with all your might ...
each one must place unending trust ... in God who rules above ... no life is worth the living ... unless it's filled with love.

Bucknell Seeks Repeat Win Over Bullets Here Saturday; Freshmen Clash At 6:45 P.M.

Revenge for a 79-61 drubbing sustained December 8 at Lewisburg will be the goal of the Gettysburg College cagers when they entertain Bucknell University here Saturday evening.

There are eight lettermen on the Bison squad but it was a newcomer, Hal Danzig, 6-6 sophomore center, who was largely instrumental in the previous Bucknell victory. Danzig landed 20 points and captured 17 rebounds in the first meeting between the teams and will be a marked man Saturday night.

Veterans on Coach Ben Kribbs' squad include Joe Baccelli, 6-0; John Beatty, 6-4; Mike Corrigan, 6-2; Bob Salankiewicz, 5-11; John Strizzi, 5-9; Marty Tannebaum, 5-9; Norm Vorhees, 6-1, and Homer Wieder, 6-3. Most of the Bucknell height is provided by the following sophomores: Jim Beideman, 6-7; Bob Ericsson and Jack Flanagan, each 6-6.

Lose Recent Games
After turning in a brilliant record during the first half of the campaign, Bucknell tapered off somewhat, losing to Wagner last Saturday and to Penn State 59-56 Wednesday. The Bisons' recent losses will make them that much tougher for the Bullets.

Gettysburg, 6-14, will have to show vast improvement over their last performance when they bowed to Albright 78-73 if they hope to spring an upset.

Jack Ridinger's freshmen, who had a three-game win streak snapped Wednesday by the Navy Plebes, will be out to regain their winning ways against the Bison yearlings in the preliminary game at 6:45.

Next Wednesday the Bullets conclude their home schedule in a twin bill with Dickinson.

JOE BLACK OF ABILENE LEADS AT SAN ANTONIO

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A couple of fellows who haven't shared a dime on the winter tour and an old campaigner playing on borrowed time led the $20,000 Texas Open into its second round today.

On top was Joe Black, Abilene, Tex., who ripped Brackenridge Park's 6,490 yards for a 7-under-par 64 yesterday while some of the biggest guns of the links trail faltered badly.

A stroke back was Bob Kay, West Hartford, Conn., who plays the tour only in the winter. Tied with Kay was the veteran Ed Furgol, who has won plenty in his career but right now is fighting time and a ripping arm muscle.

Second Time For Black
Furgol hurt the arm in 1954 but has continued to play. He knows he will have to drop out any day now and have it sewed up but he's not about to stop until forced to. Ironically, it's his right arm, not his withered left arm.

Black, former assistant professional at the Abilene Country Club and who once was a star player at Hardin-Simmons University, is making the tour for the second time. The 23-year-old shot-maker never has finished in the money and has earned this winter only $57 in a pro-amateur at Tucson.

Many Stars There
Such stars as Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif., the Texas Open champion last year, virtually shot themselves out of contention. Littler had a 76, Jack Burke, the PGA champion from Klamath Lake, N. Y., also got into trouble with a 72. Mike Souchak, the Grossinger's, N. Y., blaster who holds the Texas Open and PGA record of 267 for 72 holes, also had a 72.

Jimmy Demaret, Klamath Lake, N. Y.; Johnny Palmer, Tulsa; Jimmy Walkup, Cleveland; and Wesley Ellis, Riverdale, N. J., were tied at 66. Cary Middlecoff, Dallas, the National Open champion, had a 67.

WALLACE TO MAKE BID FOR SCORING LEAD

By PETE PEDERSEN

The Associated Press
It's graceful Grady Wallace's turn to bid for the lead in the national college basketball scoring derby tonight.

The 6-4 South Carolina forward leads his teammates against Virginia in an Atlantic Coast Conference home game.

He needs one of his better nights if he's to close in on leader Chet Fore of Columbia and runner-up Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas.

Averages Close
Chet the Jet has an average of 30.18 points per game; The Stilt has 29.94 and Grady 29.90. Wallace needs 36 points tonight to take the lead.

Wallace, a 170-pound senior, is noted for his graceful hook shots, his rebounding and defensive work. He led Gamecock scorers last year with a 23.9 mark and has been the mainstay of a 50-50 (11-9) team this season.

Fore and Chamberlain go into action tomorrow when Columbia visits Dartmouth and Kansas hits Missouri.

Most Were Resting
Action was in low key last night as most of the nation's leading teams rested for a strenuous weekend. In the Southern Conference, William and Mary brought its loop record to 6-7 by downing Virginia Military 83-66.

In the Skyline Conference, Denver staged a second-half comeback to trip Montana 55-53, and Utah used a late surge to overwhelm New Mexico 107-82.

The Dayton Flyers, enjoying one of the hottest streaks in college circles, breezed over Regis College of Denver 97-53 for their 10th victory in their last 11 games.

Georgia Tech Wins
In the Southeastern Conference's lone outing, Georgia Tech bounced arch-rival Georgia 67-65 by erasing a 4-point deficit in the last three minutes.

St. John's of Brooklyn enhanced its prospects for an NIT bid by stopping Niagara 71-67, and Manhattan trounced New York University 93-78.

Little St. Peter's College of New Jersey, recent owner of a 19-game victory streak over two seasons came a cropper against St. Francis of Brooklyn, losing 87-80. That defeat left St. Peter's with a 15-2 season record.

ROSEBORO MAY BE NEW "CAMPY" FOR BROOKLYN

By JACK HAND

HAVANA (AP) — Brooklyn's long search for a "new Campanella" may have ended in John Roseboro, a young man from Ashland, Ohio, who is drawing rave notices from Caribbean baseball scouts.

Roseboro, only 23, hit .338 with Caracas in the Venezuela Winter League and competed in the Caribbean series against Cuba, Puerto Rico and Panama. Last year he was a .273 hitter with 25 home runs at Montreal.

"Roseboro is the No. 1 prospect I've seen any place," said Mickey Owen, who managed Mayaguez, the Puerto Rican League champions. "He can do all things big-run, hit and throw."

"I'd Give $100,000"
"Sure he can be another Campanella. He can do things Campanella can't do right now. He can run like an outfielder and on top of everything else, he's a left-handed hitter. That's something everybody needs, a left-handed-hitting catcher with power."

"If he was a free agent, I'd give $100,000 just to sign him up." Owen, of course, has no chance to sign Roseboro, who is headed for the Dodgers camp at Vero Beach, Fla. The Dodgers still carry Roseboro on the Portland roster in the Pacific Coast League but that's just for bookkeeping purposes.

Bob Albright Beats Irish Joey Rowan

SEATTLE (AP) — Burly Bob Albright, making his debut under the tutelage of Deacon Jack Hurley, took a close 10 round decision last night from Irish Joey Rowan of Phoenixville, Pa.

Rowan weighed 190, Albright, of Los Angeles and Seattle, 223. A sharp left jab gave Rowan the early edge but Albright's hard right to the midsection slowly wore the Pennsylvanian down.

Albright, cut up on cheek and eye, did not win a round clearly until the seventh when he began getting home strongly with rights to the head. From there on he remained in front, often rocking Rowan but never able to drop him.

They finished it in a toe-to-toe slugfest match although weariness had taken some of the steam out of both.

Dale Alexander, who ended his playing career with Brooklyn, is now scouting for the New York Giants.

Meet Waynesboro Here This Evening

Gettysburg High School's varsity basketball squad, pictured above, entertains Waynesboro here this evening in a South Penn League doubleheader. The Warriors, 6-9, lost a 61-49 decision in the first half at Waynesboro. If the Forerunners are to win tonight they will have to stop Russ Hopewell, Waynesboro center, who tops all league scorers. The junior varsity squads meet at 6:45.

PISTONS DEFEAT BOSTON CELTICS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fort Wayne's Pistons move to Detroit next season but you can't fault their home record this year in naming the reasons for the transfer to a more populous area.

When the Pistons defeated the Boston Celtics 112-106 at Fort Wayne last night in a clash between the NBA division leaders it marked their 19th victory in 22 home games. But on the road it has been an entirely different story with a record of only eight wins and 25 defeats.

Shortly after owner Fred Zollner announced yesterday that the Pistons were moving to Detroit, he signed Coach Charley Eckman to a new three-year contract.

And then the Pistons went out and showed 5,734 fans, some what more than the average turnout of 3,600, why they are leading the Western Division by a margin of 1½ games even though they are below 500 because of their poor road record. They jumped off to 25-23 first quarter lead, made it 64-50 at the half and built up to a 26-point margin at 85-59 before the Celtics started to close in.

TEST YOUR BASEBALL KNOW-HOW YOU'RE THE MANAGER
(Sixteenth of a series)

By BEN OLAN

Bob Buhl was one of three dependable pitchers on the Milwaukee Braves' staff last season. Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette were the others.

Buhl won 18 games and lost 8, finishing 13 of the 33 games he started. As a batter, however, Buhl managed only seven hits in 73 times at bat. He had two doubles and batted in three runs.

Here's a case in which Buhl was the central figure. If you were the Milwaukee manager what would you have done? Then see what actually happened.

(Key: (R) right-handed.)
The game between the Braves and Cubs at Milwaukee is deadlocked 1-1 in the last of the seventh. Warren Hacker (R) is pitching for Chicago. Joe Adcock, the Braves' first batter, is retired. Billy Bruton follows with a fly ball which is dropped by outfielder Gale Wade and Bruton streaks to third base on the error.

Starting pitcher Buhl (R) is the next batter with Danny O'Connell (R) and Johnny Logan (R) to follow.

Would you:
a. Put in a pinch-hitter for Buhl?
b. Order Buhl to try a squeeze bunt?
c. Let Bruton try to steal home?
d. Have Buhl swing away?

Result: A — Wes Covington (L) bats for Buhl and singles to center, scoring Bruton. Milwaukee adds another run to win 3-1 as Dave Jolly, in relief, holds Chicago scoreless (April 19).

MIDDLEWEIGHTS FIGHT TONIGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — Ellsworth (Spider) Webb and muscular Neal Rivers, a couple of well-traveled middleweight title contenders, make their Madison Square Garden debuts tonight with the streaking Spider a 12-5 favorite.

Webb, now a Chicago resident, puts a winning streak of 17 as well as his No. 4 ranking on the line against the hard-hitting youngster from Las Vegas. The 22-year-old Rivers is ranked eighth among the challengers for Gene Fullmer's 160-pound crown.

A nonwinning team mate of Floyd Patterson of the great U.S. Olympic boxing team of 1952, the 25-year-old Webb hopes to grab a pro boxing title just like Patterson did. He's been taking giant steps in that direction since his Army discharge.

Winner of 10 straight and boasting a 12-1 record when tapped for service in 1953, the Spider has swept seven straight since resuming his boxing career last May.

Rivers has a 32-5-1 record, including 19 kayos. He is ranked eighth.

WANT RESEARCH TO LOCATE NEW USES FOR FUEL

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Although differing in respect to the coal industry's future, witnesses at a Congressional subcommittee hearing agreed Wednesday that stepped-up coal research is necessary to find new uses for the fuel.

Thirteen witnesses testified at a field hearing held by the House Subcommittee on Coal Research of the Interior Affairs Committee. One of the committee members is Rep. John P. Saylor (R-Pa.).

Dr. Harold J. Rose, vice president of Bituminous Research Inc., and J. D. A. Morrow, retired president of Joy Manufacturing Co., both predicted that the output of bituminous coal will be increased greatly over the years.

Disagreeing and expressing surprise that some witnesses forecast a bright future, Richard Todhunter of Barnesboro, general manager of Barnes & Tucker Coal Co., said the bituminous business is a "vicious cycle."

He said that only two major coal companies now exist in Northern Cambria County where eight concerns were flourishing not long ago.

Dennis Keenan, of Spangler, general superintendent of Sterling Coal Co., told the subcommittee it would be difficult to convince people in most sections of Cambria County that coal has a bright future.

"We are badly in need of research to assure steady employment," Keenan said. "We have been dragging our feet as far as research goes and we need it."

Says Board, Commission Men Exempt From 40 Hour Week

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader said Thursday his new policy of insisting on a full 40-hour work week from state employees did not apply to members of boards and commissions.

But if the Legislature wanted to impose such a work week, he said, he would support such a plan. "We have not had a tradition of full-time service on boards and commissions," Leader told his weekly news conference.

Such agencies include the Public Utility Commission, Milk Control Commission, Tax Equalization Board, Liquor Control Board and the Turnpike Commission.

Members of these boards meet during the week but the bulk of their work is staff prepared.

Not "Wise Thing" Leader said he felt it was not "a wise thing" to set up such paid boards and commissions but since that was the law he abided by it.

The subject arose when a newspaper asked how he felt about Republican criticism of plans by Dr. Merritt A. Williamson to continue part-time work at Penn State while serving as a member of the Turnpike Commission.

Leader said he did not expect Williamson to come to Harrisburg at a "financial sacrifice."

In answer to a question, he indicated Penn State will pay Williamson $2,000 a year for his part-time work.

That, together with the $13,000 he will now get from the Turnpike Commission, adds up to the $15,000 a year he previously received as dean of the College of Engineering at Penn State.

Nonsalaried The governor noted that he is on record favoring a non-salaried, part-time status for all boards and commissions with an executive director performing a full-time job.

Other news conference developments: Mental Health — The governor made public a plan for stepping up recruitment of psychiatrists at stat mental hospitals.

The deans of Pennsylvania's six medical schools, he said, have agreed to set up a program of career residences to serve in the mental institutions at attractive salaries.

In exchange for extra training in psychiatry in medical schools, the doctors would serve a specified term in residence at state mental hospitals, Leader said.

Post-grad Courses The medical school deans also have promised to hold post-graduate courses in psychiatry for general practitioners, facilitate summer employment at state mental hospitals for medical students and establish a speaking bureau on psychiatry.

Workmen's Insurance Fund — Leader said he was conducting a study on "who is working and who isn't" among employees of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund.

Most of the workers in this agency were cleared by John R. Torquato recently fired by Leader as secretary of labor and industry.

Legislative Cooperation—Leader denied that he had broken off relations with either Sen. John H. Dent, Senate Democratic floor leader, or Rep. H. G. Andrews, assistant Democratic floor leader in the House.

Made Statements Each has made statements on the floor that have been critical of Leader administration policies. "I have not broken off with any one," Leader said.

Turnpike Tolls—A meeting with the press and public will be held, Leader said, before any action is taken to increase tolls on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The turnpike commission received a report from a private engineering firm yesterday urging a change in tolls. It is under study.

REFUSE TO SUSPEND TEST

LONDON (AP)—Britain Thursday turned down Japan's request for suspension of the first British hydrogen bomb test.

A note to the Tokyo government said it was Britain's duty to make and test nuclear weapons in the absence of a world agreement on disarmament.

The British government plans to test its first hydrogen bomb some time after March 1 in the vicinity of Christmas Island, a British-owned atoll some 2,500 miles southeast of Japan. The Japanese government in a note Jan. 30 expressed alarm that the fallout from the explosion would injure Japanese fishing and agriculture.

Britain's reply said the tests would be bursts high in the air which would not have a heavy fallout. The note added that there would be no contamination of fish.

Almost simultaneously, the Japanese government sent along another protest against the scheduled British tests.

Snow And Cold Hits Many Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Snow fell in sections of the Northeast and cold continued in much of the eastern half of the nation today. Mild winter weather prevailed in most of the Western states.

The snow belt during the night extended from eastern Ohio and western New York through Pennsylvania and into extreme northern Virginia. Falls in most places were light although they measured 6 inches in the Harrisburg, Pa., area and more than 5 inches at Philipsburg, in central Pennsylvania.

The cold belt stretched from the Great Lakes region southward to northern parts of the Gulf Coast states and eastward to the western half of the Mid-Atlantic states. Temperatures averaged about 16 degrees lower than yesterday morning.

Readings ranged from near 40 degrees in the southern part of the cold air to near 20 in the lower Great Lakes and to below zero in the extreme northern Great Lakes region.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

ALTOONA MAY BE WITHOUT BUS SERVICE

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—This Blair County community of 77,000 may be without public transportation after March 31.

The Altoona and Logan Valley Electric Railway Co., serving the community since the 1870s, has petitioned the Public Utility Commission for authority to abandon service at the end of March.

The company contends it has been losing money steadily since 1947. In 1955 alone, losses amounted to $79,000, the company said.

In 1954, the company eliminated the last of its street car runs and substituted buses. Losses continued, the company said.

Last June 12, with PUC permission, the company increased case fares from 13 to 15 cents. School rates were increased proportionately. No help, said the company. Even a 2-cent fare wouldn't help, it said.

Hearings In March PUC hearings on the company's abandonment petition are scheduled here March 12-13.

A special committee appointed by Mayor Robert W. Anthony also is studying the problem. And Dr. R. Hadley Waters of the Penn State University Bureau of Business Research has submitted recommendations for resolving the problem.

Dr. Waters suggests that a survey be made to determine how dependent the city is on the transportation system. He also called for an investigation of the company's present and past financial status and a study to determine whether it would be practical and acceptable for the city to assume ownership of the system.

The company has not commented on Dr. Waters' recommendations.

The state government also is

Oppose Tax On Taproom Sales

HARRISBURG (AP)—Retail liquor and beer dealers have opposed a proposal to tax taproom sales under the state's 3 per cent sales tax.

Such a levy was proposed by Gov. Leader's Tax Study Committee, which he submitted to the Legislature along with other recommendations by the committee.

The Pennsylvania Tavern Assn., Pennsylvania Hotels Assn. and Pennsylvania Restaurant Assn. released copies of a letter sent last week to Leader and legislators opposing the proposed tax.

The organizations said they represent 24,000 licensed establishments.

cognizant of the city's problem. James W. McNulty, chairman of the governor's transportation committee, promised Mayor Anthony Altoona's problem would be given every consideration.

Have you looked at a church lately?

To almost everyone, the sight of a slender steeple raised to the sky evokes certain emotions—awe; perhaps, nostalgia, maybe—the sense that by not going to church lately, you've been missing something!

Next time you see a church, take a good look... and let yourself really feel what you see. If that makes you decide not only to look at the outside but also to go inside, that will be all to the good. For no matter how lovely a home you may live in, it can't compare with God's House. If you open the door, you'll find that, no matter how long you've been away, the welcome is warmer and more wonderful than you'll find anywhere else.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM
Matthew 13: 31-35, 44-52

Key Verse: The Kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Matthew 13:45-46.

This past week we celebrated again the birthday of a famous American who was a noted story teller and in whose stories were hidden truths, Abraham Lincoln was an apt pupil of the master Story Teller, Jesus Christ. Jesus used parables for various reasons, but mainly because they illustrated certain truths He wished to teach.

Parables were the ideal media for teaching about the kingdom. He had come to establish. It was necessary for Jesus to be extreme tactful for the ordinary listener was expecting a very different kind of kingdom. Ordinarily a parable is intended to show only one point but many could have double meanings.

3 Reasons For Parables

We might easily list three reasons why Jesus taught by parable (1) they were interesting and held people's attention; (2) they were not entirely clear, causing the hearers to think about them; (3) they did not arouse opposition quickly among His enemies because they could not grasp the hidden meanings.

The "kingdom parables" of this week's lesson are a few of the approximately thirty parables which Jesus used. Some of them He may have used hundreds of times for He did not speak continuously to the same group but was a traveling preacher who spoke to many different groups day after day and month after month.

God's Word is always represented in these parables as the "seed" of God's Kingdom. This "seed" must be planted, and it grows in hearts. Some receive it gladly while others will not even listen. The parable of the sower and the soils presented this matter and the one about the wheat and the tares raises the problem of the bad living together with the good.

The parables of the mustard seed and leaven in the lesson account are very similar and illustrate the small beginning of Christ's Kingdom, its gradual and sometimes imperceptible growth in both the individual and the world at large. Ultimately, it will reach large proportions as its leavening influence will be felt in all areas of life. These two parables serve as warnings as well as challenges to win souls for Christ. There are many millions yet to be won, but we need not feel discouraged. The "seed" lodged in individuals may not mature rapidly but lie dormant for years, suddenly becoming an active and convincing spiritual force. The kingdom is a vital force and does not thrive because of human aid.

Used Twin Parables

Jesus then used the twin parables known as the hidden treasure and the pearl of great price. These two emphasize the worth of the kingdom to the individual. How exciting to stumble upon a treasure hidden in the ground! Here the kingdom is like the treasure — an unexpected discovery of supreme worth. Jesus knew well the romantic thrill of concealed riches and unusual gems, so He told of the passion of the pearl-collector and his persistent search for the one pearl, willing to stake everything on it. The kingdom of God is this "pearl of great price" — the thing for which a man will give everything he possesses to obtain. Its value is far above all reckoning; it may be our gift if it is given a chance to grow and if we seek it — "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Jesus brings to a dramatic conclusion these "kingdom parables" in His sequel of the dragnet. How the nets were laid by the fishing boats on the Sea of Galilee and the method of hauling them in was well known to His hearers. "His teaching is this: the kingdom of God gathers men irresistibly to its judgment and sifts them by its own high ethic. The story thus becomes an antidote to the parable of the tares which counsels patience in the presence of badness."

And so men were taught that no risk is too great, no price too great to pay to become a citizen in God's kingdom.

The faculty presented Heidi with a gift, a piece of luggage, which she will use on her trip to Chicago for the national competition. The gift was accepted with words of appreciation from Heidi.

The Cherry Pie queen of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Sheely will arrive in Chicago on Tuesday morning for the nation contest, which will take place on Thursday. They will leave by train from Harrisburg at 8 p.m. on Monday evening. Activities preliminary to the contest are scheduled to take place on Tuesday and Wednesday. KRICHTEN IS RE-ELECTED AS C. C. PRESIDENT

The Littlestown Chamber of Commerce has been devoting much effort to secure new industry in Littlestown and an explanation of the possibilities was given at a general membership meeting of the organization Wednesday evening in the fire engine house.

Officers and directors were re-elected by the membership.

Theron W. Spangler, chairman of the Industrial Committee of the Chamber, and the other members have been investigating possibilities for three new industries and have been "cooperating with company officials in every way possible to give information regarding facilities available." A representative of one of the industries attended the meeting on Wednesday evening and explained to the members what would be needed in order for his company to locate here. The same representative will meet with the Industrial committee in the near future for further information.

An outline of the activities of the Chamber for the last several months was given. It was noted that plans are in progress to have another physician locate in the community and also brought out that several years ago an additional dentist located here, through efforts of the Chamber.

It was decided to hold a general membership meeting every other month, on the second Thursday at 9 p.m. at the engine house. A membership committee, consisting of Clair J. Redding, Wilmer Dutterer and J. Arthur Boyd, was appointed. Business men desiring to join the organization are invited to do so, for a $3 annual dues fee.

It was reported that tentative plans have been made by a nearby radio station to start a branch studio in town and enthusiastic support of the membership was given to this suggestion. It was also announced that attempts are being made to secure renters for the portion of the P. O. S. of A. building on East King Street, vacated when the Post Office moved to the new building.

A letter from the Junior Chamber of Commerce was read, expressing thanks for the help of the organization in staging the Christmas parade; the Chamber also provided the annual treat for the children.

In concluding the meeting, President Krichten emphasized: "The Chamber is on the job and trying to work to bring additional industry to the community."

Ladies' Aid To Buy New Church Flags

Mrs. Percell Worley, Hanover, R. 4, was hostess to the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, for the February meeting on Wednesday evening. The opening devotions included the group singing of "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "In The Garden;" Scripture, Mrs. Roscoe Klinefelter. The birthdays of Mrs. Kuhn, Mrs. D. C. Shanebrook and Mrs. Glenn Whisler were noted.

The business period was conducted by Mrs. John H. Hartlaub, president. The Aid decided to use the money received at the bazaar, to be held in connection with the summer picnic this year, to purchase new flags for the church. Reports were heard from Mrs. Percell Worley, secretary and Mrs. Guy McCabe, treasurer. A note of thanks was read for the Aid contribution to the March of Dimes. The guess box given by Mrs. Shanebrook was won by Mrs. James Reichart. A white elephant party was featured during the social hour. Valentines were exchanged by the members, and the verses on the cards were read. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Worley, assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Hartlaub.

The next meeting of the Aid Society will be held on Wednesday, March 13, at the church. The program will be in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Ralph Newman, chairman, Mrs. Garland Leatherman, Mrs. Guy McCabe, Mrs. James Reichart, Mrs. Ray V. Reichart and Mrs. Roscoe W. Rittsue.

SAYS BAD RISKS MAY RECEIVE STATE BENEFITS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Veterans of Foreign Wars official says that a ruling by Pennsylvania's attorney general permits people, fired because they took refuge behind the 5th Amendment, to collect unemployment compensation.

Charles Nicholas, Philadelphia district commander of the VFW, said Wednesday this ruling by Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride forces Pennsylvania employers, in effect, to "subsidize" so-called security risks.

Nicholas said McBride's Feb. 6 ruling makes it mandatory for the State Bureau of Employment Security to pay jobless benefits to claimed protection of the 5th Amendment.

Nicholas said this was the ruling: "There is no foundation in law or equity for denying a person, who has been granted a privilege guaranteed him by the United States Constitution, the benefits of unemployment compensation, if he is otherwise qualified."

Nicholas said "the VFW believes it is an outrageous situation, that those who refuse to answer before a proper legislative body, as to whether or not they are part of a conspiracy and plot to destroy the government of the United States, are now to be permitted in Pennsylvania to be subsidized for their disloyalty at taxpayers' expense."

McBride, how is head of the Philadelphia Bar Assn. and one of the top criminal lawyers in America before he accepted his present post late last year, said at his Harrisburg office:

"I don't see what we can do except follow the decision of the United States Supreme Court to the effect that the mere invocation of the 5th Amendment is not in itself an admission of guilt in a criminal case or subversion in a loyalty case."

"This is a question of law," he added.
